Meera has experience in a variety of practice areas. She has assisted with litigation and pre-litigation preparation, as well as case strategy development for matters involving community property law, conversion, environmental insurance, antitrust, and immigration issues.

Prior to joining ArentFox Schiff, Meera worked as a legal intern for several prestigious councils and organizations such as the Environmental Law and Policy Center and the Natural Resources Defense Council. She was also heavily involved with pro bono work through the Abrams Environmental Law Clinic during law school. Prior to law school, Meera interned for the Environmental Protection Agency, Earthjustice, and Congressman David Scott.

With a background in environmental science and public policy analysis, Meera approaches problems with a scientific and rational lens.
